Membership

If you are not a member of the National Trust, you can reclaim your entrance charge by joining the National Trust at reception on the day of your visit. Members enjoy free admission to all National Trust properties throughout the UK.

Education

We offer a variety of award-winning education programmes for school parties led by our Education Officer. For information please telephone: 028 4278 8830.

The National Trust

Formally established in Northern Ireland in 1936 it is Europe's leading conservation organisation. The Trust is a charity and is independent of government funding. It relies on the voluntary support of the public and its subscriptions, gifts and legacies of members, to maintain beautiful and unspoilt countryside and buildings for ever for everyone.

Mount Stewart needs you!

The National Trust depends on the support of volunteers in order to open its doors to the public each year. Why not join our dedicated team and get involved today?

We need Volunteers to:

- Sell raffle tickets
- Assist in running of events
- Guide (House and Gardens)
- Help the education team
- Help the garden team

Anyone can volunteer; there are no special skills or knowledge required. If you would like more information please contact the volunteer coordinator. Tel: 028 4278 8387
